

BIO

Scott Dutton

Conflict + Fun? Absolutely!

Scott Dutton is the Conflict Whisperer + Fun Maker! He's the CEO of Fighting Fair, creator of Conflict Intelligence® and co-host of the Conflict Stories podcast. A dynamic speaker and master facilitator, Scott works with global organisations across all sectors to resolve workplace conflict, transform team culture and empower people to tackle tough conversations with clarity + confidence.

Scott's keynotes + masterclasses are high-energy, high-impact and (seriously) fun! Having presented to over 50,000 professionals and 500+ organisations, Scott's known for delivering practical tools + powerful moments with real-time engagement + interactive twists that keeps the audience on their toes!

Scott was named Breakthrough Speaker of the Year by Professional Speakers Australia and holds the Certified Speaking Professional (CSP) designation - the highest international measure of speaking excellence. Recognised by the Global Speakers Federation, Scott ranks among the top 12% of speakers worldwide and is APAC's leading Certified Virtual Trainer.

With degrees in Science (Psych. Major) and Social Work from the University of Melbourne, Scott is a Nationally Accredited Mediator, Harvard-trained negotiator and an active member of the Australian Dispute Resolution Association (ADRA) and Professional Speakers Australia (PSA).

Conflict. Connection. Fun. With Scott, you get the triple hit - high energy, big laughs + unforgettable impact!